MATH C001N 54 Hours (54 lecture hours)

Mathematics for the Workforce 1

Grading Mode: P/NP/SP Non-Credit

MATH C001N is for students who seek to improve or refresh their mathematics reasoning and computational skills, prior to enrolling in MATH C100, C115, C120, C150, or C160. Topics include mathematical skills from arithmetic including operations with whole, integer, rational, and decimal numbers, and conversions among fractions, decimals, and percents. Noncredit. Pass/No Pass/Satisfactory Progress. (NOT DEGREE APPLICABLE.)

MATH C002N 54 Hours (54 lecture hours)

Mathematics for the Workforce 2

Grading Mode: P/NP/SP Non-Credit

MATH C002N is for students who seek to improve or refresh their mathematics reasoning and computational skills, prior to enrolling in MATH C100, C115, C120, C150, or C160. Topics cover mathematical skills from pre-algebra including ratios and proportions; measurements with U.S. measurement system, and the metric system; understanding variables, and solving equations with one variable. Noncredit. Pass/No Pass/Satisfactory Progress. (NOT DEGREE APPLICABLE.)

MATH C003N 54 Hours (54 lecture hours)

Preparation for College Mathematics 1

Grading Mode: P/NP/SP Non-Credit

MATH C003N is for students who seek to improve or refresh their mathematics reasoning and algebra skills, prior to enrolling in MATH C100, C115, C120, C150, or C160. Topics include numerical and algebraic operations, number systems, linear and quadratic equations/inequalities. Noncredit. Pass/No Pass/Satisfactory Progress. (NOT DEGREE APPLICABLE.)

MATH C004N 54 Hours (54 lecture hours)

Preparation for College Mathematics 2

Grading Mode: P/NP/SP Non-Credit

MATH C004N is for students who seek to improve or refresh their mathematics reasoning and algebra skills, prior to enrolling in MATH C100, C115, C120, C150, or C160. Topics include polynomials, factors, rational expressions, roots, exponents, logarithms, and applications. Noncredit. Pass/No Pass/Satisfactory Progress. (NOT DEGREE APPLICABLE.)
