

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE INTERMEDIATE TO ADVANCED ORAL/AURAL SKILLS, CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

3_NCL_INTER

This is a noncredit certificate program in English as a Second Language designed to prepare high-intermediate to advanced-level students for employment, career training courses, and further academic study. The certificate program focuses on speaking and listening skills, American English idioms and contemporary expressions, and pronunciation. After completing the certificate, students may go on to credit ESL or general education classes, entry-level employment, or career training courses.

Program Level Student Learning Outcomes

1. Take notes while listening to lectures, dialogues, and narratives.
2. Develop proficiency in pronouncing phonemes and using correct English language stress, pitch, and intonation patterns.
3. Recognize and use the most common English idioms and expressions appropriately.
4. Participate in discussions by asking and answering appropriate questions.

This award confirms that a student has completed a noncredit program that prepares students to progress in a career path or to take degree-applicable courses.
