

FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid programs help bridge the gap between the cost of education at Coastline College and the financial resources available to students from their families, employment, savings, and other sources. Coastline participates in the following programs:

- The California College Promise Grant (formerly BOG Fee Waiver)
- Pell Grant
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)
- Cal Grants (Cal Grant A, B, and C)
- Student Success Completion Grant
- Federal Work-Study
- California College Promise Program (also known as AB19)
- Federal Direct Loans (subsidized and unsubsidized)
- Parent PLUS Loan

Correspondence Courses

Courses that are neither taught in the classroom nor online are generally considered correspondence courses. Students receiving financial aid are advised not to enroll in correspondence courses, as doing so may negatively impact the amount of financial aid they may receive. Unless your educational program requires you to take correspondence courses, we highly recommend enrolling in courses that are taught online or in the classroom.
