Course Description

This is an intensive, integrated grammar, reading, and writing course for high-intermediate students who are non-native speakers of English. This course provides practice in literal and critical reading and responding to unsimplified texts. Emphasis on writing focused, grammatically-correct paragraphs with an effective topic sentence and supporting details.

ADVISORY: Students who have completed ESL C035 Grammar, Reading, and Writing 3A with a letter grade of C or better or Pass are encouraged to enroll in this course or new students are advised to complete the ESL placement process to determine their initial placement. NOT DEGREE APPLICABLE. Not Transferable.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome(s)

1. Given a nonsimplified reading selection, differentiate between facts and opinions and evaluate support for the opinions in a written response.
2. Given a writing prompt, write a unified, coherent paragraph with an effective topic sentence and details and an appropriate conclusion.

Course Objectives

- 1. Identify stated and implied information in unsimplified readings through discussions and written responses
- 2. Differentiate between facts and opinions in reading selections and evaluate support for opinions.
- 3. Write original compound and complex sentences that are free of syntax errors
- 4. Determine meanings of new vocabulary by applying context clues.
- 5. Express opinions in writing about assigned readings and compare information in these readings to personal experiences
- 6. Write original paragraphs with an effective topic sentence and supporting details and an appropriate conclusion.
