Course Description

Continuation of Music 130. Studies include advanced chord forms, modes, diatonic music theory, improvisation, and song analysis. Focus is on music styles of the last 40 years and is very "rock" oriented. Students learn songs of their choice as part of the curriculum. Student must provide own acoustic or electric guitar. Daily practice is necessary for satisfactory progress. ADVISORY: MUS C130. Transfer Credit: CSU; UC.

Course Level Student Learning Outcome(s)

1. Perform a solo appropriate for an intermediate guitar player, paying attention to rhythm, fingering, dynamics, phrasing, and tempo.
2. Perform guitar techniques such as syncopation, compound rhythms and intervallic complexities, fingering, slur, scale, and arpeggio.

Course Objectives

- 1. Demonstrate fundamental techniques such as right/left hand coordination, speed, accuracy, and articulation to an intermediate performance level.
- 2. Read and perform major scale modes, melodic minor scale modes, and pentatonic scales in all keys.
- 3. Construct major 9, minor 9, dominant 7, and altered dominant chords in open position as well as in moveable chord shapes.
