

COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The goal of the CIS program is to provide students with the necessary knowledge and understanding of computer information systems and the technical skills that will prepare them for entry-level positions requiring use of computer information systems and business office applications across a variety of business and industry settings. Some classes meet lower division requirements for transfer to different colleges or universities. Information about transferability of CIS classes is available in the Transfer Information section of this catalog, or through consultation with a counselor.

Department Contact Information

Pam Barvarz, CIS Program Lead
pbarvarz@occ.cccd.edu
(714) 432-0202 x21664

Computer Information Systems Department Website (<https://orangeoastcollege.edu/academics/business-computing/computer-information-systems/>)

- Computer Information Systems, Associate in Science Degree (<https://catalog.cccd.edu/orange-coast/pathways/business-management-entrepreneurship/computer-information-systems/computer-information-systems-associate-science-degree/>)
- Computer Information Systems, Certificate of Achievement (<https://catalog.cccd.edu/orange-coast/pathways/business-management-entrepreneurship/computer-information-systems/computer-information-systems-certificate-achievement/>)
- Office Assistant, Certificate of Achievement (<https://catalog.cccd.edu/orange-coast/pathways/business-management-entrepreneurship/computer-information-systems/office-assistant-coa/>)
- Web Design, Certificate of Specialization (<https://catalog.cccd.edu/orange-coast/pathways/business-management-entrepreneurship/computer-information-systems/web-design-certificate-specialization/>)