

FILM & TELEVISION

Film & Television Program Information:

For more than 50 years, the Film & Television Department at Orange Coast College has been training and preparing students to work in the exciting fields of film, television, broadcasting, and immersive media production. Our dedicated faculty and staff bring decades of professional industry experience, giving students the insight and knowledge needed to succeed. The Department highly encourages creativity and is committed to providing students with cutting edge technologies and best industry practices.

The Film & Television Department offers a variety of degrees and certificates of achievement, that can be completed in as few as four semesters. Completion of the Film & Television certificate program also satisfies the major requirements for the Associate in Arts degree. A minimum of 62 units is required to complete the AA degree as specified in the current OCC catalog under Graduation Requirements. Graduates from our industry- renowned programs have enjoyed success in major film and television productions.
